

INTERNATIONAL SERUM
INDUSTRY ASSOCIATION

ISIA Associate Membership Benefits

Join the ISIA as an Associate Member to collaborate with other companies engaged in working with animal-derived products and allow your business to make better, more informed decisions!

In addition, ISIA offers our Associate Members the opportunity to:

Expand Your Business and Your Industry Impact

- Close collaboration with companies in/adjacent to your supply chain allows you the ability to predict and influence policy or industry practices that impact your business
- Lead or join one of the ISIA volunteer teams in order to actively engage in and prioritize initiatives of importance to your business

Access an Expert Network

- Strengthen relationships with your peers, your customers, and your suppliers working with animal-derived products
- Direct access to ISIA subject matter expert resources for addressing questions or brainstorming on ideas
- Enjoy discounted member rates for the ISIA Annual Meeting, held in Budapest, Hungary in 2025, further enhancing your professional journey

Educate Yourself and Others

- Understand trends in the serum industry that are affecting (or may affect) your business, so that you can proactively communicate to your organization and your customers
- Access guidance from our regulatory experts to understand how complex legislation could affect your specific business
- Learn from our expansive library of members-only content that has been cultivated since the inception of ISIA in 2006
